ALLEGHENY NATIONAL FOREST & KINZUA SKY WALK

STORY IDEAS FOR 2023

Kinzua Sky Walk

The skywalk is 624 feet long, 225 feet high with a partial glass floor, providing 360-degree views of the Kinzua Gorge. It was built on six of the historic Kinzua Viaduct towers left standing following a tornado on July 21, 2002. When built in 1882, the Kinzua Viaduct was the highest and longest railroad viaduct in the world.

Allegheny National Forest

“So Big, So Green” Pennsylvania’s ONLY National Forest is in northwestern PA. This beautiful forest offers four seasons of outdoor recreation, including over 600-miles of trails for hiking, biking, mountain biking, ATV, and snowmobiling. Camping along the shoreline of the Allegheny Reservoir offers scenic vistas of woods and water.

Small Towns, Big History

Each small town has significant world history from the discovery of the world’s first billion-dollar oil field to the storied Bucktails of Civil War fame, to the saving of the Lobo Wolves from extinction. Where else can you find a Zippo lighter, Opera and Oil Museum in the same town?

Art in the Wilds

This annual juried art show will be held June 24-25, 2023 in Evergreen Park, Kane, PA. A signature artisan event for the Pennsylvania Wilds Region, this show features artisans who craft decorative wooden items from the heartwood of trees harvested locally, along with paintings, photography, weaving, jewelry, and pottery.

Wilds Sunshine Factory

Opening in 2023, the Wilds Sunshine Factory is a distillery crafting spirits from sunflowers grown in PA. At this agricultural education center learn about the natural resources of timber, water, and agriculture via interpretive displays and guided tours. Tasting Room. Sunflower Fields.

Marilyn Horne Museum

New is “Evening in Venice” at this 3,400 sq. foot, Art Deco exhibition space. Enjoy 19 interactive exhibits, lavish costumes, artifacts, and a documentary in which the renowned opera diva tells the story of her rise to international acclaim. For groups, Evening in Venice begins with a decadent dessert buffet, ending with a make-your-own Venetian mask to take home

Zippo/Case Museum

The Zippo/Case Museum is undergoing a major renovation, which will be completed in the summer of 2023. Highlighting the unique history of two iconic, made in American brands, the Zippo lighter and the Case knife, the 15,000 sq. foot museum offers interactive exhibits, photo ops, and their flagship store in the town where the Zippo lighter was invented – Bradford, PA.

Knox & Kane Rail Trail

In 2023, the section from Lantz Corners to Kane will be constructed linking the two sections of trail now in use between the Kinzua Bridge State Park and Lantz Corners and between Kane to Lamont. When fully completed the Knox & Kane Rail Trail will be 73.8-miles in length. The trail traverses four counties and the Allegheny National Forest.
