

KINZUA SKY WALK

YOU ARE ON THE TRAIL TO SOMETHING BIG

In the Allegheny National Forest Region everything is bigger. The sky is more vast, the trees a bit taller, and the fall foliage more colorful. For groups touring northern Pennsylvania and nearby southwestern New York, our region offers nature tours, history & heritage tours, culinary adventures and spectacular fall foliage.

MAIN ATTRACTIONS

Kinzua Sky Walk - Enjoy the stunning views as you "Walk the Tracks across the Sky." The skywalk, built on the historic towers of the world famous Kinzua Viaduct, once the longest and highest viaduct in the world, extends over 600 feet into the Kinzua Gorge and features a partial glass floor. Free Admission & Interpretive Park Programming for Groups.

Allegheny National Forest - Beautiful any time of year, the Longhouse National Scenic Drive is rated as one of the top 50 scenic drives by USA Today. Guided hikes, interpretive programs. Step-on guides available.

Fall Foliage - Fall really is bigger here! Plan your tour in late September or early October to view the vibrant colors of the forest.

Scenic Route 6 - Experience the small-town charms along this 400 mile northern Pennsylvania byway rated by National Geographic as one of "America's Most Scenic Drives." Suggested sites to visit: Olmsted Manor, Artworks at the Depot, Flickerwood Wine Cellars & Lounge, Nebo Chapel, Mt. Jewett Heritage Mural, Old Jail Museum, and the Smethport Mansion District Inn.
